From Thursday June 2. to Monday June 6. 1681.

Berlin, May 18.

OUr Elector will begin his Journey to Magdeburg on the 25th Instant, and from thence intends to go to Germany, and having drunk the Waters there, to remove from thence to Cleves. It has been very confidently reported, that his Electoral Highness had made a French Gentleman Governor of Cleves, but upon enquiry it appears to be a mistake. The Letters we receive from Warsaw give us an Account, That there were great Heats in the Dyet, which after all, they feared would not have the happy Conclusion that was to be wished; That the Treaty with the Moscovites did not advance at all, and that the Poles began to have a great Suspition that they were Treating with the Turks.

Hamburg, June 6. We have Letters from Mosco, Dated the 6th of the last Month, which say, That a Truce was concluded between the Turks and the Moscovites for 20 years; and that they were expecting there an Ambassador from Constantinople, which will be a very unwelcome piece of News to the Poles, who have gone so far towards a War with the Turks; and at the same time we receive Letters from Warsaw, Dated the 26th past, which tell us, That the Dyet after having Set eighteen weeks, was broken up in disorder, without coming to a Conclusion in any one of the points that had been before them; occasioned by the dissatisfaction of one of the Deputies of Lithuania, who having made a Protestation against the Proceedings of the Dyet on the 24th, immediately departed, and could not be perswaded to return; but on the contrary, other Deputies joyning with him, the Dyet broke up and separated; for by their Constitution the Protestation of any one of the Deputies puts so perfect a stop to the Proceedings, that unless the Person be prevailed with to take it off, the Dyet must break up.

Cologne, June 6. The Deputies of Liege are still here, endeavouring to compose Matters, but the late Action at Visee, has so offended his Electoral Highness, that he is resolved to employ Force, in order to the bringing that City to its Duty, and for that purpose is going to raise two Regiments of Foot, and several Officers are come hither to take Service. From Wesel we have an Account, That they are making there a Bridge over the Rhine, which is almost finished; and that the Elector of Brandenburg had sent Orders to Recruit the Regiments that are quartered in the Countrey of Cleves.

Brussels, June 6. The Proceedings of the French does extreamly perplex this Court, for as we have already told you, they now Demand the Town and Countrey of Chimay; and if satisfaction be not given them in few days, they will bring their Forces again into Luxemburg, and Quarter them upon the poor Inhabitants.

Hague, June 10. The Governor of Newport is arrived here, and to morrow he parts hence with Don Fuen Mayor, the Spanish Envoye, to give the Prince of Parma an Account of the great interruption that the Brandenburg Frigats, which continue to cruise on the coast of Flanders give to their Trade. Mr. Bertie, Envoye Extraordinary from His Majesty of Great Britain to several Princes of the Empire is arrived here, and went this Morning with Mr. Sidney, His Majesties Minister here, to wait upon the Prince and Princess of Orange at Honslaerdike.

Plymouth, May 31. The Foresight, Captain Killigrew Commander, and the Faulcon, Captain Churchi, are now in Port, expecting the Merchants Ships that are to pass under their Convoy to the Straights. The last night arrived here the Antelope, Captain Story, from Cruising.

Lime, June 1. We were very much surprized to see it Printed in some of the Intelligences, that this Town had resolved on a Petition to be presented to His Majesty for the Sitting of a Parliament, when nobody here had heard of any such thing. all His Majesties Loyal Subjects of this Town being so fully satisfied with His Majesties late Gracious Declaration, that they think it their Duty to make their most Humble acknowledgments to His Majesty of that transcendent Goodness, of which they become every day more and more sensible, and of the great Happiness they enjoy under the Gracious influences of it; and to morrow there will be a meeting at Dorchester of the Justices of the Peace and most of the considerable Gentlemen of the County, where will likewise be many Loyal Persons of this Town, in order to the Drawing up an Humble Address to His Majesty for that purpose.

Windsor, June 3. His Majesty in consideration of the great Loyalty of Daniel Fleming of Ridal, in the County of Westmerland, Esq; was pleased on the 15th of the last Month, to Confer the Honor of Knighthood upon him.

And on the the 30th of the same Month, Christopher Thilipson of Crook-Hall in the said County, a Person of known Loyalty and Affection to His Majesties Person and Government, received the same Honor of Knighthood from His Majesty.

Windsor, June 3. An Humble Address from the Town and County of Newcastle having been presented to the King by Sir Nathaniel Johnson the Mayor, accompanied by Sir Robert Shafto, Recorder, Sir Richard Scot, Sir John Werwang, and several other Gentlemen, Burgesses of that Town, His Majesty was pleased to tell them, that this Testimony of their Dutiful and Loyal Affection to him was very acceptable to him; and to assure them, That he would maintain the Protestant Religion, as now established in the Church of England; and that the Law should be the Rule of His Government, and Commanded the Mayor to give His Thanks to His good Town.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Sheriff of Your Majesties Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties Loyal and Obedient Subjects of Your Town and County of Newcastle upon Tyne, do in all Humility, give Your Majesty our utmost and unfeigned Thanks for Your most Gracious Declaration, wherein by Your Princely Word, You have fully assured us of Your Royal Resolution to Defend the Government, as it is established both in Church and State, and to protect us against the dangers and hazards of Popery. We therefore, the Mayor, Recorder, and Aldermen of the said Town, in the name, and on the behalf of the said Corporation, do assure Your Majesty, That we value our Loyalty to Your Majesty, at the dearest Expence of our Lives and Fortunes, and are deeply sensible of the influence of Your Majesties most auspicious Government over us, and of the Tranquility we enjoy under it; and shall be always ready to defend Your Majesties most Sacred Person, and the best of Religions (that of the Church of England) for the defence of which the best of Kings (Your Royal Father) dyed a Glorious Martyr; If any Tumultuous or Seditious Spirits shall attempt any thing prejudicial to Your Majesties most Sacred Person (whom God protect) Your Crown and Dignity, either in Church or State; we shall use our utmost diligence to suppress them, that Your Majesties Reign (which we both wish and Pray for) may be long and Glorious over us.

The Humble Address of Your Majesties most Loyal and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs, and Burgesses of the Town of Cambridge, by a full consent, attested with their Common Seal, at a Common day held at the Guild-Hall of the same Town, on the 27th day of May, in the Three and thirtieth year of Your Majesties most Gracious Reign.

Most Gracious and Dread Sovereign,

WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being exceedingly sensible of Your Majesties Royal Love and Pious Disposition to the Peace and Happiness of Your Subjects, and of the great Felicity which we, and all Your Majesties good Subjects do enjoy, under Your Majesties most Gracious Government; and being also fully perswaded, That as Your Majesty observes the Laws of the Land as the Rule whereby to Govern; so Your Majesties continual Care and Endeavour will be to restrain and quiet the restless disposition of such as are addicted to innovation, or transported beyond the limits of their Duty; Do in all hearty and dutiful Manner, return Your Majesty our grateful Acknowledgment, and most humble Thanks for the same, and also for Your Majesties Publick and Gracious Resolutions to preserve the undoubted Right of the Crown in a legal Succession, to secure the Liberty and Property of Your People, and the Doctrine and Discipline of the Church of England, as by Law established; And further, for Your Majesties Gracious and Royal Declaration, after the Dissolution of the last Parliament, appointed to be read in all Churches, to the great encouragement of Your Majesties Loyal Subjects, and to the undeceiving such others, as the cunning and wicked insinuations of all ill Men, and Seditious Pamphlets might have brought to a suspition of Your Government, and Contempt
